The twenty-seventh ordinary session of the Municipal Assembly of People's Power in Mayarí, in its seventeenth term of office, will take place this Saturday from nine o'clock in the morning at the local party theater.

The agenda includes the rendering of an account by the Administration Council on the fulfillment of its attributions and the approval of new lay judges to exercise their functions in the Mayarí municipal People's Court.

The implementation of the Economic and Social Development Strategy in the territory until 2030 and the measures proposed to ensure compliance with the Plan for the construction and rehabilitation of housing in the territory during 2022 are included among the items on the work agenda.

The ordinary session of the Municipal Assembly of People's Power in Mayarí, convened for this Saturday, March 5, plans to discuss the accountability of the representatives of the People's Council of Guatemala.
