

Constitution of the Republic of Cuba

Article 201. The essential objective of the Municipal Administration is to satisfy, among others, the economic, health, welfare, educational, cultural, sports and recreational needs of the community in the territory under its jurisdiction, as well as to carry out tasks related to prevention and social care.

The law determines the organization, structure and functioning of the Municipal Administration.

The Administration Council is appointed by the Municipal Assembly of People's Power, to which it is subordinate and accountable. Its composition, integration and functions are established by law.

The Municipal Administration Council is presided over by the Mayor, has a collegiate character, performs executive-administrative functions and directs the Municipal Administration.

The legal complement to the above constitutional provisions, regarding the Intendant, appear in Law Number 132 of December 20, 2019, Law on the Organization and Functioning of the Municipal Assemblies of People's Power and the People's Councils, which you can read Here.
